Sweet basil has failed pesticide test

Referring to your last letter, you say, what you have done, but not what you will do, to prevent this issue.

Let me remind you, that the laws are set by E.U. and not by Thailandia import, so please tell your famers, how important this matter is.

We are so close to goal now, please do not drop the ball

I have already sent you the test result, and I need more test of this item from you, to make sure rules are being followed
